

Explosions

In the event of an explosion or similar emergency:

Immediately take cover under tables, desks, etc., which will provide protection from falling glass or debris.

Safely move away from heat sources, smoke and fire.

Evacuate the area following building evacuation procedures

Call 911 and give the dispatcher the following information:

Building and location within where explosion occurred

Any information about injuries.

Cause of explosion, if known.